U.N.S. ARCHIVES

Sir

The annexed is extract of a letter I had the pleasure to receive from my valuable friend Governor Fanning, and as I am no stranger to his esteem for you I take the liberty to send it you, being with the profoundest respect

Sir

Your most obedient servant.
But from the painful misunderstanding occasioned by that greatest of all possible villains Arnold, your wretched, but ever grateful
Honson Hay[illegible]

Hon[ble] Col[o] Winslow

'I am much obliged to you for the mention you make of
'many of my former worthy good friends, but alas I fear they
'have almost forgot me, this I am sure of they by their silence
'seem to neglect me; my worthy friends Col[o] Winslow —
'— &c: are great delinquents in this line, — They have
'unkindly omitted answering my letters to them, or my
'letters to them must have cruelly miscarried.
